

Gite n°1213 - Le pavillon champêtre

Located in AUTHOU, in L'Eure

This adorable house enjoys a beautiful lush setting, along the river. Quietly, in a small hamlet, the owner succeeded to enhance its traditional brick structure with wrought iron works for the entrance roof or the window sill, and flowerbeds outside, as in the living room motifs of the Italian Renaissance in front of the fireplace or decorative elements that he brought back from China. It also offers a very upto date equipment. The south exposed terrace overlooks the park and a few steps away a covered and heated swimming pool (17mx3.5m), to be shared with the owner. The many trails around and remarkable sites such as the Bec Hellouin abbey, a cycle track of 40 kms in full nature, which allows sometimes to perceive wild animals and unexpected landscapes or its small churches are the promise of a stay of discovery and healing in the heart of intimate Normandy. Ground floor : Large living room opened kitchen onto the terrace. Small bathroom and toilet. Upstairs, 2 bedrooms (1 double bed 140x190 and 2 single beds 90x190, 1 padded wrought-iron baby cot). Flower garden opening on a park within a property of 8000 m². Unprotected river, on the side of the garden. For the respect of all, please for smoking outside the cottage. Swimming pool accessible all year round (cooler water temperature in winter : 18°C). Gas barbecue. Baby equipment: cot, high chair ...
